

ROGER LAMOUREUX

Career and Personal Paths

I sold mutual funds (shares) and owned commercial and residential buildings for over 20 years. My wife and I were co-owners of a clothing store (Boutique Le Cachot) in the Galeries de Granby; we were the best per square foot for 29 years!

Why I Became an Entrepreneur or Administrator

I wanted to be a business leader and develop the human aspect of businesses.

Why I Am a Mentor

Because I have been self-employed, so I know how entrepreneurs feel when faced with their bank and creditors.

My Guiding Values

Transmitting all the experience I can to help people in business.

My Passions and Interests

The stock exchange, business, and wine, as I have a wine cellar.
