

SYLVIE LAFONTAINE

Career and Personal Paths

I have been the director of the Office municipal d'habitation of the city of Granby (since 1997) and of the City of Bromont (since 2001). I am also an administrator, elected by my peers, at the Regroupement des Offices d'habitation du Québec (ROHQ).

Why I Became an Entrepreneur or Administrator

For the pleasure of managing, making decisions, working as a team, and meeting people.

Why I Am a Mentor

To guide people along their path, because I have listening skills and believe I can help. To give back what I received as a mentee.

My Guiding Values

Recognition (giving back), respect for human value (respect for and confidence in human capabilities), and the need to create or help others create.

My Passions and Interests

People; travelling, to meet people; all forms of art, to meet people through their works; and children.
