

YVON LESSARD

Career and Personal Paths

I have coordinated several economic projects at IBM, in addition to running and administering a housing stock with 144 dwellings. I have also consulted in business structuring and organization and helped organize federal elections.

Why I Became an Entrepreneur or Administrator

For the satisfaction of fulfilling my duties and for the opportunity to always learn.

Why I Am a Mentor

To learn from helping relationships with dynamic people.

My Guiding Values

Authenticity, honesty, respect, and the environment.

My Passions and Interests

Long walks and the challenge of pushing my limits.
